

The 2017 Kiwanis Community Service Award

Our student Ho Lok Yiu (何諾瑤) from F.4E has participated actively in community services for a few years. She was nominated by our school to receive the community service award which was organized by the Kiwanis Club of Hong Kong.

The recipient for this award has distinguished himself or herself in the following ways:

- Leadership in the school's community service programs,
- Sustained community service work of important value,
- Recognized excellence in studying community service needs and devising innovative solutions to address them.

Lok Yiu has been awarded "Winner of the Kiwanis Community Service Award". She has received a framed certificate and a scholarship of HK$1,000.

Congratulations!
